Third Global Minor Use Summit (GMUS-3)
Montreal, Quebec, Canada
October 1-4, 2017

Useful Information

Transportation:

From the Pierre Elliott Trudeau International Airport (Montreal, QC) (http://www.admtl.com/en)

1) 747 Bus Service
    Featuring 24-hour service, 365 days a year, the 747 service includes a stop at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel
    Tickets are purchased at the cost of $10 inside the airport terminal before boarding. When returning, a $10 bus fare is paid aboard the bus. Travel time may vary between 45 to 70 minutes depending on traffic.

2) Taxi / Cab
    24 hours service, flat rate: $40 one way. Travel time may vary between 30 to 55 minutes.

Within Montreal

Public Transportation: Metro and Buses - Consult http://stm.info/en
    Fare: $3.25 per trip
    3 day card - consecutive: $18.00

Fairmont Queen Elizabeth Hotel (http://www.fairmont.com/queen-elizabeth-montreal/)

In the heart of Montreal's thriving shopping and business district you will find Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth - a 1960s classic hotel that was transformed into a contemporary lifestyle space, complete with modern technologies and amenities. Newly renovated, the hotel offers an inspiring new business hub and meeting space; a signature bar, restaurant and urban market; a Wellness Centre and indoor pool; an outdoor terrace; and a vibrant lobby event space.

Attractions:

Come and celebrate Montreal 375th Anniversary and discover:

1) The Old Montreal and the Old Port
Explore the urban beach, cruises, art galleries, artisan's boutiques, restaurants and terraces, all within walking distance from the Queen Elizabeth Hotel

2) Do not miss a visit to the Botanical Garden, the Insectarium and the Biodôme, which all offer a immersive experience in various ecosystems and the Olympic Stadium.

3) Montreal underground
The underground city extends 32 km (20 miles) in length. It is a vast network of pedestrian walkways below the city. There are some 2,000 shops and restaurants, 10 major hotels, museums, and theatres.

And much more….